

College Ready, Test Ready: Are you ready to help your students? The Redesigned SAT and the Changing Landscape of College Entrance Exams

November 3, 2015

Learning Objectives: What will I know – or be thinking about - at the end of this day?

1. How are the changes of college entrance exams affecting college admissions policies?
2. How can the tools and resources I hear about today help me support my students in preparing for the redesigned college entrance exams?
3. How can connecting with peers and new professional contacts inspire and energize me to stay committed to this important work?

AGENDA

8:45 – 8:55: Welcome: Phil Weinberg, Deputy Chancellor for Teaching and Learning, NYC DOE

8:55 – 9:40: Networking Activity

9:40 – 10:20: Panel: Changing Landscape of College Entrance Exams
Clayton Harding, Director of College Counseling at The Armory Foundation
Beryl Jeffers, Director of SUNY Recruitment
Clare Norton, Director of CUNY Admissions
Josh Steckel, College Counselor at the Brooklyn School for Collaborative Studies

10:30-11:30: Breakout 1
SAT School Day Pilot: OPERATIONS STAFF ONLY STAY IN BALLROOM

11:30-12:15: Lunch (Box lunch, please transition to common areas or breakout rooms)
SAT School Day Pilot: Lunch in Ballroom. ALL PILOT SCHOOL STAFF HAVE LUNCH TOGETHER.

12:20-1:20: Breakout 2
SAT School Day Pilot: Breakout 2 in Ballroom. ALL PILOT SCHOOL STAFF TOGETHER IN BALLROOM.

1:30 – 2:30: Breakout 3

Don't forget to complete a Feedback Form today!*